

Table of content

Editorial	5
Standards for land use and planning - Only for specialists? Jesper M. Paasch, Jenny Paulsson	8
The effect of public and private sectors on Greek cities Despina Dimelli	18
TTIP - a frivolous claim to public land policies? The consequences of the investment partnership for property rights, procurement, and land values in Berlin and Vienna Fabian Thiel	24
Environmental compliance in land use planning in Germany Karsten Leschinski-Stechow	38
Formal property rights in the face of the substantial right to housing Francesco Lo Piccolo, Annalisa Giampino	52
Derry/Londonderry: A city of walls Keith Henry, Greg Lloyd, Emma Farnan	64
Local indigenous communities and oil industry - Property rights of local indigenous communities and oil industries through lenses of environmental justice Milan Husar, Maros Finka	82
The difficulty of justifying eminent domain: The Indian scenario Shruti Yerramilli	92
The transformation of social obligations of land rights on state-owned land in China Zhe Huang	100

Regulation in a crony capitalist state: The case of planning laws in Bangalore
Sony Pellissery, Anirudh Chakradhar, Deepa KS, Mounik Lahiri, Navyasree S Ram, Neha Mallick, Niraj Kumar, Pratik Harish	110
Responsible localism, reactionary localism: Lessons on land use controls and sustainability from the Global South for the Global North
James S. Krueger, Harvey M. Jacobs	120
Land values as the social construction of scarcity
Benjamin Davy	130
<hr/>
The authors	147